FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FLORIDA YMCAs– HURRICANE IRMA RELIEF

YMCAs across the state open doors to members and community to support Irma Relief

At the Y, our foundation is set on strengthening communities. That means being there for our neighbors in the good times and in the rough times.

Florida Ys are doing what they can to open their doors and hearts to area friends and neighbors impacted by Hurricane Irma. Our Ys are opening to all, free of charge to those in need. If you need a place to charge your phone, grab a cup of coffee, take a shower, or simply relax with a workout, there is a place for you at the Y.

Many of our Ys across the 19 associations, are open, however some remain without power. Below is a contact list of YMCAs in the state of Florida that currently have branches open to all local residents.

- Highlands County YMCA, 863-382-9622
- Sarasota YMCA, 941-951-2916
- SKY Family YMCA, 941-492-9622

About the Florida Alliance of YMCAs

The Florida Alliance of YMCAs provides a single, unified voice for the Y in Florida. Together, we believe we can create a healthier and more active state for future generations. Florida Ys serve all segments of their communities by providing youth enrichment opportunities, promoting health and wellness, building partnerships and encouraging volunteerism. Working together, we create communities with a shared vision – communities in which everyone plays a part in building a stronger tomorrow.
